KBMA TOURNAMENT SANCTIONING

Anyone in good standing with THE KURO BUSHI MARTIAL ARTS (KBMA) can sanction their tournament. Simply follow the requirements listed below. KBMA is an "Open" rating organization, which means it's sanctioned/rated. Tournaments are open to all martial arts individual, all martial arts organization, and all martial arts schools. We rate competitors based on age, division, sex, and belt rank levels. It does not matter what style of Martial Arts you study. It matters that you can compete on a fair, equal level that allows all competitors to strive to do their best and receive their proper rewards based on their skills and efforts.

KBMA rates tournaments from the highest five-A World rating competitors earn a certain number of points based on their placement in the divisions they enter and the rating level of the tournament. Competitors accumulate points for all KBMA tournaments they enter on a calendar year, January through December.
